

Raising economic prosperity through partnership

Wednesday 15 July 2009
Queen Elizabeth II Conference Centre
London

Beacon Scheme Learning exchange

Learn from the best about tackling the recession and enabling economic success in spite of the recession. The Beacons have experience which relates to urban and rural areas and different economic challenges and opportunities and will be there to answer your questions and explain some important innovations including tackling worklessness through council apprenticeships, launching an economic development company, tackling the recession through housing development and building partnerships with private, public and voluntary sectors.

Places are on a first-come, first-served basis. Book online at www.beacons.idea.gov.uk.
