

Contact details for Humanism

Details about Humanism within Lancashire can be found on this website: <https://lancashire.humanist.org.uk>

Alternatively contact Keith Pennington directly by email at keith@lancashire.humanist.org.uk

Keith is experienced in school visits. This can involve leading collective worship, speaking to pupils and improving teachers' subject knowledge.

General teaching resources can be found at: Understanding Humanism

Conway Hall

Conwy Hall is one of the only two surviving buildings in the UK built by and for the non – religious. It is a Humanist building where non – religious people gather together and find community.
