Dear Mr Moore

I am writing regarding the definitive map modification order near haunders Lane Much Hoole, I would like to make some more representations on the subject.

On the plan you sent us it not clear where the where the byway would join haunders lane it appears to just start randomly on the current private farm track.

If passed who would be responsible for up keeping and maintaining of this public byway I can confirm that when the proposed route passes the headland of our most northerly field at the end of the track it is just bear soil and field for the rest of the way until the Cooks family farm yard. Horses on this would become a bogey mess and would break current environmental standards which we as farmers must maintain so as not to be in breach of rules set out by the environment agency, who would then be responsible for any fines that would be incurred for polluting the ditch that runs alongside the route with muddy water.

I can see umpteen problems with this route as regards the cooks family farmyard, I know that virtually no one has used that section of the footpath for more than forty years never mind putting a public byway through it you need to have a long think about this project is it really in local peoples interest it will most likely cause the county council problems and expense

Yours faithfully

Robin cowgill
