

Permission to Access the Route from the Landowner

The entire length of the Order route is a public footpath, the route can therefore be accessed on foot for the purpose of inspection.