

Permission to Access the Route from the Landowner

The entire length of the order route is unregistered. The Order making Authority has otherwise been unable establish land ownership, in order to request permission for the inspector to access the route.