DRINKING & DRIVING POINTS TO CONSIDER. One in every hundred licence holders in this country will be tested during the course of a year. Fines are on the increase. How over £250 is quite usual for first time offenders just over the legal limit. A loss of licence has untold side effects. Minimum period disqualification - 12 months. Each year there are some five and a half thousand people killed in road accidents. Any alcohol makes you nearer to being included as a statistic. Remember if you drink and drive you wreck your life and others. THE ROYAL SOCIETY FOR THE PREVENTION OF ACCIDENTS Information supplied by A R O S P A
