

Permission to Access the Route from the Landowner

The majority of the length of the Order route, from point B to point I on the Order plan, is a public footpath, this section of the route can therefore be accessed on foot for purposes of inspection.

The section of the route from point A to point B on the Order plan crosses a small section of land which is pending first registration, no details of ownership are available at the time of submission. The rest of the land crossed at this point is unregistered. The county council has not otherwise been able to establish ownership of this section of the route in order to seek permission from the landowner/landowners.
