Deliver Centre Support worker
Education and Children's Services

Service:	Children's Services	Team:	Early Help Service
Location:	Preston
Salary range:	£23,114 - £23,893 (pro-rata)	Grade:	4
Reports to:	Senior Family Support Worker	Staff responsible for:	n/a

Job Purpose

Reporting to a relevant Senior Family Support Worker, post holders will work in partnership with colleagues across their team, assisting and undertaking tasks which support the safe and smooth day to day operation of Early Help Services in Family Hubs and Family Centre's, delivery operations, for children, adults, young people and family groups. They will be aligned to the Preston area.

Post holders will provide a front facing meet and greet service to all users of one or more nominated sites across their team area, dealing with and signposting any general queries which arise as a result of service user self-referrals.

Post holders will apply and undertake a variety of standardised procedures, using associated tools and equipment to ensure that centre users, participants and visitors are directed to the right activities and that their access needs are met. They will engage in recording appointments, room and group bookings using IT systems for Early Help Service and other agreed multi-agency partner delivery requirements. They may support standard procedures for monitoring safety check points for staff undertaking outreach and home visiting.

Post holders will undertake directed tasks in relation to recording of service user information in regards their use of Family Hubs and Family Centre services. This will involve them updating information on the Early Help Service management information system.

Post holders will use personal initiative to maintain an overview of the health and safety of the operating environment and take corrective action to address any issues which arise and/or seek guidance on this from their line manager.

Post holders will work in close cooperation with Neighbourhood Group Workers to create and manage the suitability of the environment in the Family Hubs and Family Centers for service users, including responsive hygiene/cleanliness, display information, physical environment layout.

Post holders may have some involvement in the maintenance of facility standards, in conjunction with premises managers around basic testing, risk assessment and review procedures and contractor liaison where necessary.

From time to time, and where appropriate, post holders may also assist with supporting delivery sessions and services to ensure appropriate supervision/ratios are maintained and to support group participants with their participation needs as necessary.

Post holders will build positive relationships with service users, within the confines of their contact with them and build mutual trust and respect.

Supporting the service in the delivery and continuous improvement of early help services for children, young people, and families in line with the vision for Children and Families in Lancashire developed by the Children and Families Partnership Board which states;
