

Permission to Access the Route from the Landowner

At the time of submission the OMA has not received a response from the landowner to requests for permission for the inspector to access the land. If a response is subsequently received the OMA shall forward the permission without delay.