

Contact details for Judaism

Synagogues

- There is a small orthodox Jewish community at St Annes. To contact the rabbi please see the following website: St Annes Hebrew Congregation – Orthodox Jewish Community in Lancashire \(shulbythesea.co.uk\) This purpose-built synagogue was opened in 1964 and serves the Jewish Orthodox community in the area. Visits from schools are led by the Rabbi or community volunteers and include a guided tour and explanations, e.g. on Jewish prayer, artefacts, history and detail of the building, ways of Jewish life and religious festivals.
- Bury Hebrew Congregation Contact us - Bury Hebrew Congregation \(buryhc.org.uk\) Tel: 0161 796 5062

Museum

- Manchester Jewish Museum

This museum holds over 31,000 items which document the story of Jewish Migration and settlement in Manchester. The museum aims to connect Jewish stories to the world to highlight that there is more that bind us together than separates us

Manchester Jewish Museum

- Board of Deputies of British Jews

This organisation can arrange Jews to visit non Jewish schools and is very helpful. The contact details are on their website: Education \(bod.org.uk\)
