17.12 All matters recorded at the date of this transfer in registers open to public inspection, are deemed to be within the actual knowledge of the Transferee for the purposes of section 6(2)(a) of the LPMPA 1994, notwithstanding section 6(3) of the LPMPA 1994.

17.13 Where the Transferee is more than one person all covenants agreements and obligations on the part of the Transferee herein contained shall be deemed to have been made jointly and severally by such persons with the Transferor so that the said covenants agreements and obligations may be enforced by the Transferor against such Transferee either jointly or severally and in such order as the Transferor may in its absolute discretion think fit.

17.14 Unless the right of enforcement is expressly granted it is not intended that a third party should have the right to enforce a provision of this Transfer under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999.

17.15 This Transfer and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the law of England and Wales.

The transferor must execute this transfer as a deed using the space opposite. If there is more than one transferor, all must execute. Forms of execution are given in Schedule 9 to the Land Registration Rules 2003. If the transfer contains transferee's covenants or declarations or contains an application by the transferee (such as for a restriction), it must also be executed by the transferee.

If there is more than one transferee and panel 11 has been completed, each transferee may also execute this transfer to comply with the requirements in section 53(1)(b) of the Law of Property Act 1925 relating to the declaration of a trust of land. Please refer to Land Registry's Public Guide 18 – Joint property ownership and Practice Guide 24 – Private trusts of land for further guidance.
