

Aspire - Believe - Achieve Lomeshaye Junior School

Year 4 - Key Question - How do Sikhs express their beliefs & values?

Year 4 Key Question

RE

How should we live our lives?

Unit Question

How do Sikhs express their beliefs and values?

The Khanda Symbol

There are three symbols which come together to make the Sikh Khanda symbol.

Our focus religion is

Sikhs have many principles

- Share talents with others.
- Share money with the poor.
- Don't lie to others.
- Don't be greedy.
- Don't be angry.
- Serve God and people.

VOCABULARY

The chakkar

The chakkar reminds God is without beginning and end. Stay within God's religion. A round throwing.

The two crossed Kirpans

The two crossed Kirpans represent power and authority.

The Khanda is a double-edged sword that shows that Sikhs believe in equality.

The Nelson Gurdwara invites YOU to feast on our scrumptious Langar.

Date: 08.02.2024
Time: 8:00pm

Everyone is welcome because everyone is equal!

Langar is an important part of Sikh sewa because Sikhs must serve the community and help others.

Menu

- Starter =
 - Samosas
 - Kebabs
- Main =
 - Lamb Karahi
- Dessert =
 - Chocolate fudge
 - Calce
 - Jalebi

Work with your team

It doesn't matter whether you are rich or poor. Everyone is equal.

Treat honest and hard working people with respect.

Do not cheat or mistreat people.

Treat others how you want to be treated.

Treat people with kindness.

Always be honest and fair.